

Observation

Observation Tips:

Observe with all of your senses when possible: What do you see, smell, feel, and hear? Do not interact with the child, sit to the side and observe. Write the facts (what you see, hear, smell, and feel physically); do not write your interpretation at this point.

Your name: _____

Date: _____

| Supportive Learning Experience | Describe what happened during this activity | Additional activity you plan to offer |
|--------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
|                                |   |                                       |
|                                |   |                                       |

Comments/Questions:

---

---

---

---