

Assignment:

Check out and surf through the web links in lecture 10 (the European Union) to such sites as the European Union, the Council of the European Union, the European Commission, the website of the President of the European Commission (Roman Prodi), the website of the European Parliament, and the website of the European Court of Justice.

Also, you might want to check out the following site, Europa chats, which is an internet facility for cybertalk:
Europa chats

Finally, note that lecture 10 traces the history of the European Union, briefly describes its institutions, and focuses on such issues as the next wave of enlargement, which took place in May 2004, with the addition of ten new members.