

CRW-111

QUIZ I -syllabus

1. According to the syllabus, this course deals with the 3 academic capabilities
2. There is a final exam/project, but no midterm
3. This is a lecture course
4. We go to the pc lab every tues throughout the semester
5. There is homework most days
6. We will critically watch and annotate 2 films.
7. The required text was written by Stephen Kinzer
8. Office hours are on Tues mornings before class
9. This course has a ‘don’t ask don’t tell policy’ for late homework
10. How many class sessions will be held in the PC Lab?

QUIZ –II continents & hemispheres

Preparation: label: the 4 hemispheres, the Equator & the 4 Cardinal Directions(3 Points)—go to CIA Factbook

Answer the following based on your preparation and the CIA Factbook maps

1. North America is in the “western” and “northern” hemispheres
2. Iraq is in the Western Hemisphere
3. Afghanistan is north of the Equator
4. The Middle East is part of three Continents.
5. Chile is in the Southern Hemisphere and north of Guatemala
6. On what continent are Iran and Iraq?
7. The western hemisphere includes the nations of the Caribbean

EXTRA CREDIT: THINK ABOUT THESE”

- A) Do the Philippines belong to a hemisphere?
- B) Do the Philippines belong to a continent?
- C) Are some continents a hybrid of geography and politics?
- D) Is Iraq in the same Hemisphere as eastern Russia?

QUIZ IV –The Middle East

1. Why is this region called the Middle east?

CRW-111

2. The Red Sea is west of the Persian Gulf
3. Iraq is north of Egypt
4. Iran is much smaller than Syria
5. Iraq borders Israel
6. The Tigris and Euphrates Rivers flow through Iraq
7. Turkey is southeast of Iraq
8. The Mediterranean lies east of Saudi Arabia
9. The Persian Gulf separates Saudi Arabia from Iraq
10. Is the Middle East a Continent?

QUIZ Previewing Kinzer

1. The paperback edition of Overthrow was published in 2000
2. The publisher is University of Mass.,. Press
3. Kinzer wrote for the Boston Globe.
4. Kinzer didn't cite his sources in a bibliography
5. There are 11 Chapters
6. There are no maps or photos.
7. Kinzer put his notes at the end of every chapter.
8. The body of the text is divided into three sections
9. The book is organized chronologically
10. The body chapters are approximately the same length

QUIZ III – essay instructions

- 1) The minimum number of pages is the optimal number of pages:
- 2) Everyone must do some independent research
- 3) 5 pages converts to about 15-17 paragraphs
- 4) Everyone must use Kinzer as a source
- 5) It is ok to use MLA style attribution
- 6) Every essay option requires you to critically analyze ideas, arguments and empirical 'data'
- 7) Your PK research, journals and blog postings contain lots of raw materials for your essays
- 8) I only expect you to hand in a final draft to me on the last day of class
- 9) I will be so excited when you use and cite Wikipedia
- 10) I expect you to write lots of icebergs

Extra Credit:

- 11) I don't think peer feedback is very helpful
- 12) I expect you to take initiative and responsibility for your choices
- 13) I expect you to communicate and collaborate with me
- 14) I expect you to wait until the last minute to write your essay

collier & cia factbook

1. What percentage of the military actions listed were formally declared wars?
2. What types of military actions did collier exclude from her chronology?
3. How many times did our troops go to DR?
4. How many times did we go to England and Ireland combined?
5. Who does collier work for?
6. In what year and place was the first military action beyond the western hemisphere?
7. What is the smallest nation in land area us troops landed?
8. What evidence of author bias can you detect in the Factbook entry for Cuba?
9. Kinzer mentions the 1954 coups in Guatemala and Iran why doesn't collier?
10. Why is the ongoing Iraq War not mentioned by Collier?
- 11.

