

Session One Discussion Question :

After having read about the Congress of Vienna and the changes it made in Europe, do you think that the statesmen who made the decisions did a good job? Why or why not? Could they have done something differently? What, for example?